WHY PLATINUM?

Premium exclusivity with maximum brand exposure and speaking opportunities

- Exclusive keynote speaking platform: a 10–15 minute opening ceremony slot provides unparalleled thought leadership positioning and direct access to the entire conference audience.
- Complete brand dominance: company logo on all conference badges, lanyards and during the gala dinner ensures your brand is visible throughout the entire three-day event to every attendee.
- Prime real estate advantages: corner/entrance exhibition location plus plasma screen marketing materials guarantee maximum foot traffic and sustained visibility during all conference activities.
- Comprehensive delegate value: three free registrations including industrial presentation slot, plus FESI membership, and branded conference materials deliver exceptional ROI through multiple touchpoints and networking opportunities.

WHY GOLD?

Strategic event association with targeted brand visibility

- Event ownership positioning: sponsorship of either all daily lunches (three events) or all coffee breaks (six events) creates a strong brand association with essential conference experiences attended by all delegates.
- Premium brand placement: logo in premium location on conference website, plus branded area during sponsored events, ensures sustained visibility throughout the conference duration.
- Quality engagement opportunities: premium exhibition location combined with one industrial presentation slot provides optimal conditions for meaningful prospect interactions and lead generation;
- Strong delegate package: two free registrations plus FESI membership and premium marketing display rights offer excellent networking value and cost savings for exhibiting teams.

WHY SILVER?

Strategic event association with targeted brand visibility

- Dedicated networking moments: sponsorship of individual coffee breaks (six total opportunities) provides branded interaction time when attendees are most receptive to conversations and networking.
- Targeted brand visibility: roll-up banners during premium time slots ensures targeted visibility to attendees most likely to be interested in your organisation.
- Cost-effective exhibition presence: standard exhibition space with conference website logo placement and an industrial presentation slot offers solid ROI for companies seeking quality leads without premium location costs.
- Essential conference benefits: one free registration plus presentation opportunity provides fundamental conference participation value at an accessible price point for smaller organisations.

WHY BRONZE?

Entry-level brand awareness with professional presentation opportunity

- Strategic registration area visibility: roll-up banner placement in the registration area ensures first impression brand exposure as every conference attendee checks in over the three-day period.
- Digital brand presence: logo inclusion on the conference website provides extended brand visibility before, during, and after the event to all registered participants.
- Flexible promotional space: dedicated area for promotional materials demonstration allows creative brand activation and product showcasing without significant space rental costs.
